- Tapeña (tah-PAY-nyah) is the ideal complement for an evening of food and conversation among close friends.
- In Spain, going for Tapas (TAH-paz) is the American equivalent of bar hopping with an epicurean twist.
- At every taberna, tapas (small plates) are served communal style and each person is armed with a glass of wine and a fork.
- Our wines come from Tierra de Castilla, the largest wine growing region, located in the heart of Spain.
- Tempranillo is the most widely planted grape in Spain and ours is bright, fruity, and delicious.
